Why Not YOU? . . .

Many graduates and ex-students of this school have attained success in business, their chosen vocation, because they chose to obtain their extra training in this private business school.

The private business school has a keener interest in each student. The success of the school depends on the success of its graduates.

The private business school is in closer touch with business men and with the requirements of business. Graduates, for the most part, look to the school for positions.

The private business school has more of the practical atmosphere of the business office, with the result that the student develops a business viewpoint.

The private business school plans each student's course, and the teachers pay attention to the individual needs of each student.

Enrollment periods are more frequent, so that the student does not have to wait a year or even a half year to begin a course.

The brighter and more ambitious student has a better opportunity to forge ahead in his work because of the private business school's courses and instruction methods.

The private business school is, in a real sense, an opportunity school. It takes people of varying age groups and backgrounds, and gives them the training they want and need to achieve specific objectives.

What it has done for others, it can and will do for you.

His Holiness Pope Pius XII

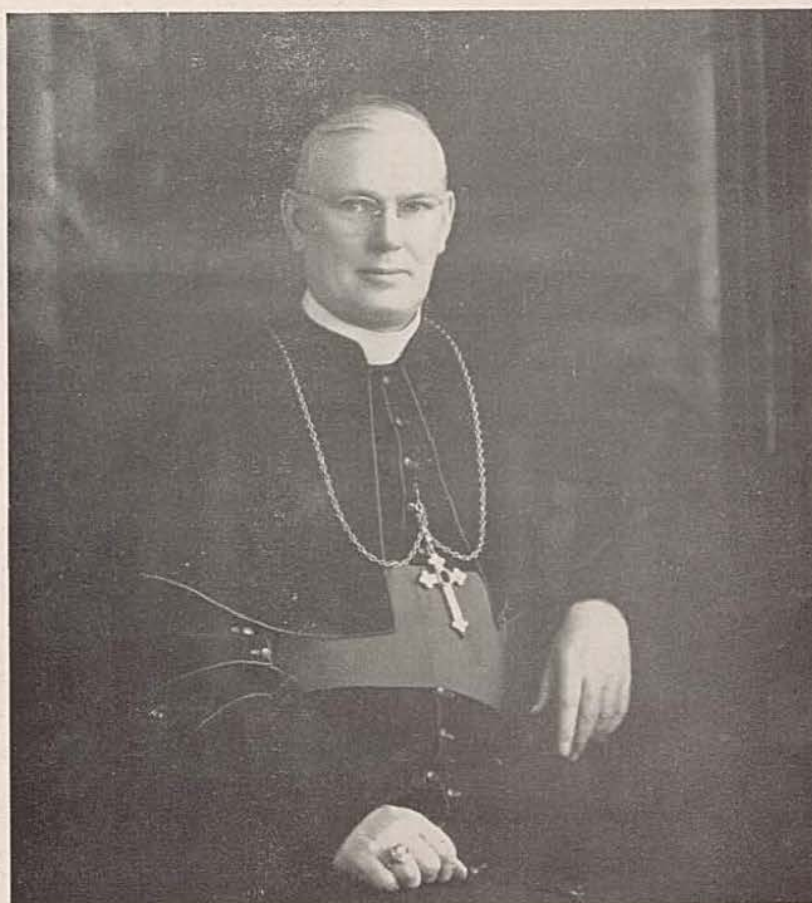

VICAR OF CHRIST

SUPREME PONTIFF OF THE UNIVERSAL CHURCH

IN THIS SEVENTEENTH YEAR OF HIS GLORIOUS PONTIFICATE

May we remember him with gratitude as we share the joys of the restored splendor of the Liturgy.

"The Lord preserve him and give him life, and make him blessed upon the earth; and deliver him not up to the will of his enemies."

Total Consecration by Living the Mass

In His "great commandment" Jesus demands not partial but total consecration: "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with thy WHOLE heart" (John 11, 37). Perfection must always be our aim, even if in the order of actual accomplishment we may find ourselves far from the goal. Living the spirit of the Mass is the key to victory. This is the great Action for which there can be no substitute in our warfare against the world, the flesh and the devil. At Mass it is not just the physical Body of Christ which is offered but His Mystical Body of which we are members. So we are part of the materials of sacrifice; we are part of the Victim, called to "fill up those things which are wanting to the sufferings of Christ" (1 Col., 1, 24). In the words of St. Augustine: "There you lie on the altar, there you are in the chalice; and we are there with you also" (Sermon 229).

If we refuse to play our part, it is as if only the Head of Christ had been nailed to the Cross but not His other members! So important is this willing offering of ourselves that if at Sunday Mass we miss the offertory, we are bound to return to another Mass. Similarly, if we be at Mass but quite unwilling to offer ourselves with Christ to the Heavenly Father, we might as well not be there at all. When the victim is unwilling, there is no merit. Had Christ died unwillingly, we should not have been saved. The same Precious Blood sprinkled the Bad Thief and the Good Thief on Calvary, but the unwilling one obtained no benefit while the willing one gained paradise . . . May all of you go the whole way in your love of Christ who went the whole way in His love of You!

Devotedly yours in Christ,

+ John C. Cody,

THE ROSE BALL '55

The annual Rose Ball of St. Rose's High was held on May sixth in the Parish Hall. The hall was very gaily decorated with pastel streamers, and clusters of red roses in every crest and corner. The end of the hall opposite the Matti Holli Orchestra was a beautiful terras-effect setting.

The grads with their dates entered the hall together after an Introduction Coketail Party at the home of Miss Sharon Bernard, one of the grads.

The patrons for this exciting evening were Mayor and Mrs. E. M. Warren, Dr. and Mrs. E. C. Ladouceur, Dr. and Mrs. E. L. Paquette, also the parents of the graduates. Mr. Edward LaLonge acted as Master of Ceremonies. Escorted by Mr. George Makra, the elected queen, Miss Vicky Hovevar looked radiant in a white floor length gown with a corsage of purple orchids. She was crowned with a tiara of red roses by the queen of '54, Miss Gay Brush.

The graduates of '56 wish the grads of '57 continued success in their undertakings.

May Our Lord and Our Lady bless them throughout the coming year.

Reverend R. E. Lowrey, C.S.B.
Pastor of our parish who besides administering to the spiritual needs of the parish, still devotes much time in making St. Rose a neat and comfortable, ideal place in which to acquire a sound Catholic education.

Reverend H. P. Nolan, C.S.B.
Who most graciously donates his valuable time and efforts in making the religion classes in St. Rose's both interesting and instructive. He has also helped in coaching the Senior Basketball team and has done an outstanding job in the social affairs of the Young People's Club and Blessed Virgin's Sodality.

Reverend E. W. Allor, C.S.B.

First assistant, who teaches religion so effectively at St. John the Baptist school besides attending to the spiritual needs of his penitents.

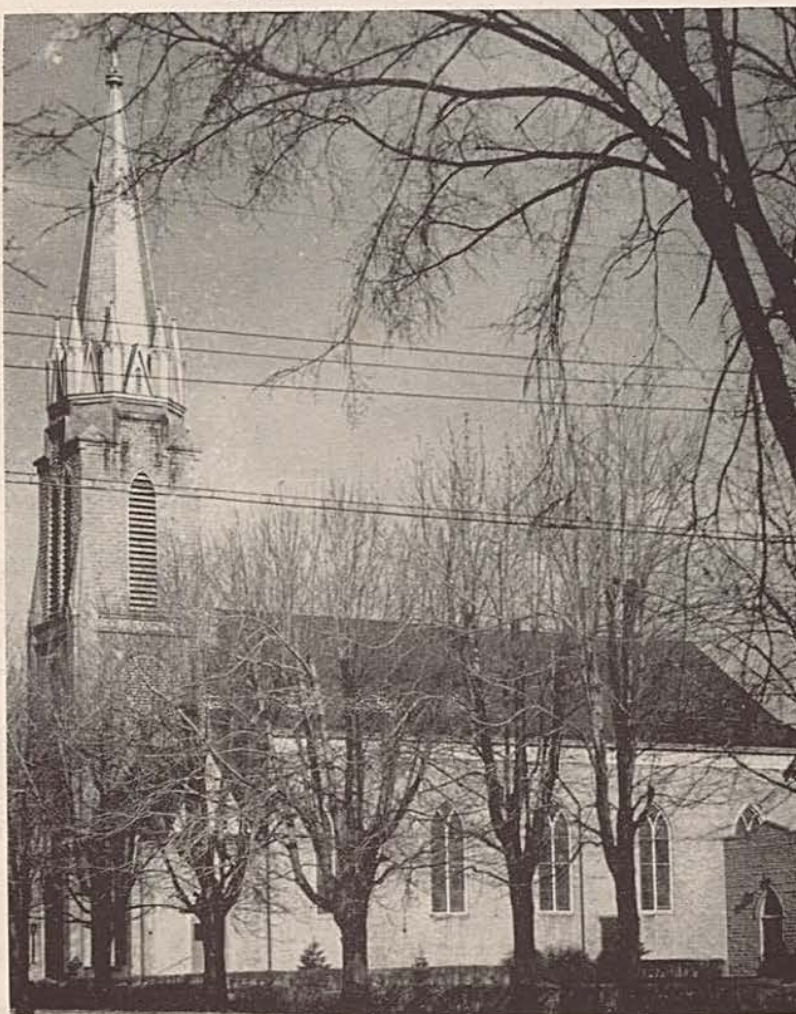

Reverend G. McAlpine, C.S.B.

Who so ably teaches religion at St. Anthony's School. We pray that his health will soon be restored.

GRADUATION '55

THE GRADUATION EXERCISES FOR GRADE XII OF
ST. ROSE HIGH SCHOOL TOOK PLACE ON SUNDAY, JUNE 19, 1955

The twenty-one graduates, in their caps and gowns attended the eight o'clock mass at St. John the Baptist Church and received Holy Communion in a body. Father Lowrey addressed the graduates congratulating them on successfully passing another milestone on their life's journey.

The Junior school choir, under the direction of Sister M. Lucy of Jesus and Sister Clare Maurer, with Mrs. H. Hamilton as organist rendered hymns chosen for the occasion.

Breakfast was served at St. Joseph's Academy with Father R. Lowrey presiding.

At three in the afternoon, the graduates accompanied by their flower girls and pages marched from St. Joseph's Academy to the church where Father Lowrey read the proclamation of honours and presented the awards as follows: Miss Marie Bezaire awarded the prize for French, donated by Macomb Mullen; Miss Sharon Bernard, Rex Beaudoin, awarded the prize for Athletics, donated by the Separate School Board; Roger Bezaire, awarded the prize for School Spirit, donated by His Worship the Mayor and Mrs. E. Warren; Thomas Bondy, Russel Cantelon, awarded the prize for Athletics, donated by James Pouget; Miss Theresa Charette, Miss Joan Deslippe, awarded the prize for Latin, donated by the Sisters of St. Joseph's Academy; Miss Janet Dupuis, awarded the prize for Religious Knowledge, donated by the Basilian Fathers; Miss Victoria Hovevar awarded the Lieutenant Hayward Jones Memorial Award for English, donated by Mr. and Mrs. George Jones; Miss Geraldine Hunt, awarded the prize for Application, donated by Parent - Teachers' Association; Terrance Patrick Mayville merited the St. Rose Scholarship Award; Miss Liliana Mistruzzi, awarded the prize for Science, donated by the Knights of Columbus; Miss Patricia Peacock, Harry Plastow, Miss Mary Ann Pouget, also awarded the prize for Mathematics, donated by Mrs. N. A. Marra, Miss Mae Renaud, Daniel Schlindler, Miss Lorelei Sinasac, Miss Rita Jane Warren, awarded the prize for English Composition, donated by the Catholic Women's League.

Father V. McIntyre, C.S.B., pastor of Blessed Sacrament Church, Windsor, gave an inspiring talk to the Graduates. Some of the excellent principles Father emphasized were: refuse to believe that the end of life is pleasure, money, fame; be suspicious of short cuts to success; cultivate the presence of God; never argue with conscience; truly our chief end is to glorify God and enjoy Him in Heaven.

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

We, the graduates of '56, eagerly await the momentous occasion for which we have been striving through the last twelve years. As the long-awaited day comes nearer, a certain sadness takes its rightful place beside our joy, as the graduates, after twelve years under the kind guidance of the Sisters of the Holy Names prepare to enter the world in which they will play an important part, great or small according to their ability and choice.

We, the '56's ask God's Guidance and strength to perform the task assigned to us by Divine Providence.

Patrick Warren

CLASS PROPHECY

After an absence of twenty years from Amherstburg, I returned from Santa Anita race track where I am a retired jockey and now owner of the racing establishment. Entering the modern metropolis I was detained by a small cavalcade of forty cars headed by a monstrous custom-built hearse with huge letters on the sides which stated "See us now before it's too late. We have a special cut rate," James H. Sutton, Jr. As the traffic cleared I proceeded to find my way to the Hotel L'Reaume, which was designed and constructed by Armand DeLuca, and is owned by an old friend, Mr. Rock and Roll Ron Reaume. As I entered the lavish lobby I was quickly greeted by none other than Mr. Collier Hunt, manager of this marvellous hotel, and later, I was introduced to his charming wife, another of my old class-mates, the former Miss Ann Blingham. While I was being conducted to my suite of rooms, I was surprised to find out that the jovial bell hop was Jerry Bornais. I quickly slipped him a hundred dollar bill and gave him a hot tip on the fifth race running Saturday at Santa Anita. I assured him it was a safe bet as our old pal John Fryer was riding "Doublemint".

Later in the evening, while enjoying the symphony concert conducted by Mr. Wesley McCauley, I met the financier of the new St. Rose auditorium, Mr. P. Warren, wealthy sports-car manufacturer, who was waiting for his wife, the former Sally Beneteau. During intermission I ran into the Misses Arlene DeHetre, Barbara Pettypiece, and Nancy Dube who are proprietors of the world-renowned Beauty and Rejuvenation Salon. While talking to them they informed me that I could find most of the old gang at Pete's "Pizza Place". I hailed a cab, and to my surprise, I found that the driver was Freda Christl.

Arriving at Pete's, I was ushered into the Green and Gold room by the lovely Lou Ann Sinasac. She asked me if I would please wait to order later as the Academy Award Presentations were taking place. Oscars were being presented to Mr. Gerald Marlon Deslippe and Miss Joyce Za Za Grondin for their sensational performance in "Love is Just Around the Corner", written by that famous authoress, Miss Katherine Tiefenbach and produced by the former Jo-Anne Fitzmaurice, now the wife of the Captain on the S.S. Columbia.

No evening would be complete without the navy and as the lights brightened one end of the room was filled with navy blue uniforms with a glittering array of brass buttons and stripes. Being invited to join the merry group, I soon recognized Admiral G. Pattenden and his wife, the former Patricia Spearing. Seated opposite them were Rear Admiral G. Thrasher and his lovely new bride, Marilyn Bondy. As we were leaving the establishment I saw Mary Sue LaLonge ready for work armed with mops and brooms.

About three-thirty that morning I was disturbed from my sleep by a telephone call, my bookie, Betty Ann Deneau, quickly informed me that "Doublemint" had lost the fifth race and Jerry Bornais was looking for me. Before leaving for Santa Anita I visited the Superior of St. Joseph's Academy, Sr. Mary Jane Sculigny. She informed me that the St. Rose Sr. Boys' basketball team coached by Rev. Father Nolan and managed by Mr. Stefani were carrying out the old yearly tradition of defeating General Amherst High School.

Halifax, Nova Scotia,
 July 30, 1976.

Mr. William Gibb, Manager,
 Detroit Tiger Baseball Club,
 Lakeland, Florida.

Dear Bill,

I've at last found time to write to you about my recent visit to our dear old home town of Amherstburg, on my annual leave.

As I approached the harbour on the new atomic-powered passenger ship, the "Yankovich", which I learned is owned by our old classmate, I was stunned to note the immensity of the city now. This rapid growth, I learned, was due to the great sea-way project, and expansions made at the Brunner Mond of Canada, which is now managed by our old friend, Bob Mayville.

The first of our old classmates that I contacted was Mary Anne Parker, now news editor for the Amherstburg Daily Echo. After a very interesting afternoon with her, I dropped in for a meal at the most famous restaurant, The Spaghetto Palace, which is owned and operated by the Sauro & Simone International Enterprises. To my surprise there sat Mr. and Mrs. Ed Curtis (the former Marilyn Dube) who are happily married and raising a fine family. Then who should come to take my order but the head waitress, none other than Annette Beneteau. In the course of my conversation with her, she mentioned that they purchase all the tomatoes for the famed pizza pies from the Walach and Pouget tomato farms, right on the outskirts of the city.

That evening I was invited to a Film Premier at the new Liberty Theatre. There I met a few celebrities including Antoine Beaudoin, Chief Scientist for the Physics Department at the University of St. Rose. He suggested that I make a visit to dear old St. Rose before I left, which I did.

Early the next morning I drove to Mass at St. John the Baptist Cathedral. I was astonished but very happy to see none other than Father Lawrence Cote, C.S.B., enter the sanctuary. After Mass he took me to the buildings of the University of St. Rose via a speedy jet-subway. There I met Sister Francis (Patsy Marshall) who is now a French teacher, and Sister Ignatius (Nancy Amlin) who instructs the music classes. The four of us found time before the opening of classes to go over to the Medical College and visit another of our fellow graduates, Bev. Wigle, who is now the head instructress in burial preparations and the wife of a prominent funeral director.

I then decided to tour the countryside. I hailed a rocket-taxi to take me to the nearest points of interest. To my astonishment I was taken there by the famous rocket-mobile speed artist Pat "Speedball" Bondy, who has retired from his renowned profession to re-enter the taxi business. He had no trouble in showing me about. We drove on to the greatly travelled Pike Free-way and entered the huge shopping centre. There we visited with Wayne Hunt, now married and manager of a thriving cold storage plant. As we approached the unloading platform we noticed the arrival of a large shipment of catfish from the "Harvey Beneteau Cat Fisheries of River Canard".

Upon leaving the shopping centre Pat and I saw the headlines on one of the Tele-News screens. It read: "Miss Sally Kelly, made famous as the only girl member of the Globe Trotters, has retired from the basketball court today." Too bad. It looks as if our old friend has finally reached the end of an exciting career.

The next morning I headed towards a used car lot to get some cheap transportation for my stay. A large sign "Johnny's Service" attracted my attention. It was an ultra-modern garage with twenty rocket fuel pumps in front and about forty acres of wrecked jet cars and many beat up old "gasoline buggies" like those we used to drive. As I entered the spacious office, I was welcomed by our old buddy, John Sunderland, the "Junk Yard King," who inherited his father's business. After renting a rocket car, I left for other places of interest.

I had a wonderful time on the rest of my leave, but before I left I also met Shirley Dufour who now manages the world famous "Slenderella Salons" and Sheila Finn, co-owner of the Shamrock Inn, the gathering point for all the Irishmen in the old Burg. Then I ran into Pat Pilon, owner of the huge Big Creek, site of the world's largest electric power project.

Well, Bill, I'll have to close this letter now because I'll soon be boarding the H.M.C.S. Bob-Lo, the new atomic cruiser of which I have just been put in command. Take care of yourself during this baseball season and good luck to the whole team.

As always, your old cium,

Vice-Admiral Sir Charles McGee, R.C.N.

 Fifth Row: B. Schindler, H. Shaw, J. Taylor, J. Trombley.

XI Class Notes

Amy Adams, the girl with the sore knee,
Likes very much Grade Twelve E.
Joyce Amlin, the girl who loves class,
At the end of the year is sure to pass.
Irene Bastien, short and sweet,
Wishes she were provided with bigger feet.
Paul Bernard is quite the lad,
But in Geometry classes grows very sad.
Joan Deslippe with Jerry so rates,
That other boys have no chance to date.
Wayne Dornan, the boy with a toni,
In fifty years will wear a phony.
Kay Dube with lots of patience,
Likes to stop at gas stations.
Larry Gardiner, our holy terror,
Is careful never to make an error.
Maureen Helfrich, a real cool blond,
Never fails to keep Jane calm.
Nina Kirkaldy is often late,
Because she's tired after her date.
Mary Kitka caused a minor riot,
When she started her calorie diet.
Lynne Ladouceur is fine and dandy,
After Lent will eat more candy.
Jerry Musyj who drives his brother's Ford,
If he wrecks it, help him please, Lord.
Mary Lou Ouellette who has no time for pool,
Wishes she could learn it after school.

Penny Peters, the future "nun",
Likes to date Mr. Horn's son.
Elso Pontini, the clown of the class,
Is wondering if he's going to pass.
Donna Pouget, a pal to all,
Will give her help for any call.
Jim Reaume, after school,
Peddles milk like a mad fool.
Janette Renaud who likes to laugh,
Always gets caught during Physics class.
Isabelle Renaud is being given quite a rush,
By someone from Amherst named Brush.
Gabriel Rosati, the Texas Road Kid,
In geometry can make his bid.
Pierre Andre, a lad quite keen,
In Boy Scouts rates a "queen".
Mary Jane Richard with bright red hair,
To school a Scot's kilt doth wear.
Beverly Schindler, I've heard it said,
Seems to like boys with hair quite red.
Donna Sauro who collects the fines,
Is never caught when it's her time.
Harold Shaw, in the front seat at school,
Often dreams he is playing pool.
Jane Taylor with a one track mind,
Likes for friends the American kind.
Joyce Trombley, number fourteen,
In basketball is really keen.

Monday Morning Blues ... XII E

Sister Eugene, with early morning news,
Greets the class with its Monday morning blues.
Ed Curtis, without his usual cheer,
Gives out a snore and hopes the teacher won't hear.
Bev Wigle, floating on a cloud,
Snore too, but not as loud.
Miss Simone, "How do you do,
What has the week-end done for you?"
Pat Bondy, we'll not mention
He's off in dreamland on a convention.
Patsy Marshall, with her curly locks,
Sits and waits for four o'clock.
Pat Pilon droops her head,
And wishes that she were home in bed.
Margie Pouget is very wise,
She spends her weekends civilized.
Gazing Miss Parker desperately tries
To find toothpicks to hold open her eyes.
Sheila Finn flutters her eyes in a twinkle
And tries to imitate Rip Van Winkle.
John Sunderland, sleepy eyed, is resting so,
Just give him Amy and watch him go.
Porky Mayville must think it's last night,
He's slumped in his seat with his eyes shut tight.
Marilyn Dube, curled up in her seat,
Says: "Boy, am I ever beat."
John Yankovich had fun last night,
But today, he's not feeling too bright.

Shirley Dufour did stay in bed,
And is not here to face the Monday dread.
Harvey Beneteau hasn't far to go,
Before his head is bending low.
Mary Sauro is usually awake,
But finds it hard after that Sunday night date.
Rose Walach, a wide awake lass,
Is the only one not sleeping in the class.
Antoine Beaudoin feels right at home,
Till he reaches the board with a groan.
Nancy Amlin sure looks bright,
She stayed home and studied last night.
Sally Kelly with glassy eyes,
Meets the class with her "Hi's"
Wayne Hunt — we've lost all hope,
Sits and dreams like a silly dope.
Charlie McGee desperately tries
To drive the star-dust from his eyes.
Annette Beneteau can't be beat,
She's curled up in her desk sound asleep.
Lawrence Cote rattles his keys,
Dreamily hopes his motor will sneeze.
Bill Gibb — What a surprise!
He's finally beginning to open his eyes.

Year Book Verses --- Grade X

Marilyn Meloche sits by the window,
Does her work well and doesn't dwindle.
Jim Curtis with blond hair,
During French wishes he had a spare.
Betty Dault, who likes fun,
Especially after class has begun.
Pat Ouellette, a sweet young lass,
Has her eye on a guy across the class.
Juliann Hainer, our walkie-talkie,
She's not short, nor very stalkie.
Vicky Mustruzzi, who sits near the back,
Very funny will sometimes act.
Adele Meloche, a dark haired lass,
Competes with Garnet for the head of the class.
Bernadette Thompson, a girl of great joys,
Mainly a friend to all the boys.
Eilene Amlin, a quiet girl,
When she goes skating, sure takes a whirl.
Ethiland Jones with carrot red hair,
At a party is no square.
Arlene Douglas who loves to talk,
Wishes school out at 2 o'clock.
Kaye McKenzie, our jive cat,
Sure goes for St. Rose's Pat.
Josie Walach, a real fine gal,
To everyone is an excellent pal.
Kenny Bezaire, who's a friend to Stan,
When he finishes school, will be an old man.
Ronald Bezaire, who sits opposite Kaye,
Always likes to laugh and play.
Bernard Bondy, nicknamed Bernal,
In school studies he does well.
Eugene Reaume, our elephant boy,
Sure makes a hit as Sir's Toy.
Marilyn Sinasac, whose nickname is Sam,
When it comes to exams she never has to cram.
Marie LaFramboise, whose hair is long,
In French is almost never wrong.

Gerald Fox, Oh mother!
Hands off, he's Liberace's brother.
Larry Shaw, nicknamed Freddy,
When there's a riot he's able and ready.
Ronnie Bornais, our sleepy head boy,
When the bell rings at four, he's filled with joy.
Pat Pouget, who's on the senior team,
Combs his hair with Bryl Cream.
Garnet Meloche, wow, dig that chicken,
If he ain't dancing he's pulling a slick one.
Ronald Brooks who at the front sits,
Mixes homework with his wits.
Vincent Spearing whose aim is St. Rose,
When on the basketball court really goes.
Dick Bondy, who's rather short,
Is always good in any sport.
Albert Rocheleau, our French class "A",
In school studies he makes out okay.
Gary Cullen, our new boy,
With all the girls, he's real coy.
Richard Beaudoin, nicknamed Dick,
All the girls agree he's no hick.
Isador Musyj, the quiet man,
Will certainly never get in a jam.
Ronald Burns, our CYO master,
When he gives lectures it sticks like plaster.
Charles Rebidoux, we call him Chips,
Never a dull moment where he sits.
Kenny Grondin, nicknamed Cookie,
When it comes to class he never plays hookie.
Lynda Hamilton, who's nice as can be,
She'll make her grades just wait and see.
Stanley McCauley, who's the mischievous kind,
Will someday make Sir go right out of his mind.
Marilyn Lyons, who's on the ball,
When it comes to jive, she's a real cool doll.

Whenever I get the feeling that I should study, I just lie down and the feeling goes away.

Teacher (after hitting pupil on the head): "Now, Chick, why did I hit you?"
Chick: "That does it! First you hit me, and now you don't know why you did it."

GRADE IX-S

 Fifth Row: F. Pietrangelo, T. Reaume, I. Renaud.

Grade IX-S Class Notes

Barbara Amlin: a curly-haired lass,
Is one of the smallest ones in the class.

Steve Bastien: a wizard of Oz,
Sits in school all day and draws.

Bill Beckett: a jolly old chap,
When he sees a nun he raises his cap.

Jerry Peneteau: who is kind of quiet,
When Sir leaves the room he starts a riot.

Paul Beneteau: brings the mail,
Rain or shine he'll never fail.

Bob Bingham: who wants to play ball,
Goes to the game to sit and that's all.

Barry Brown: who is always early,
Spends his evenings at the Brown Derby.

Michael Brush: who answers the door,
Thinks that French is quite a chore.

Carolyn Burns: a cute little lass,
Is always at the head of our class.

Kenny Colomb: who goes to Bill's to play pool,
Writes lines after school.

Patty Deneau: who we think is grand,
Is a majorette in the Amherstburg band.

Marilyn Deslippe: her name is not Lizzy,
When she sees Wayne she gets quite dizzy.

Mickey Dornan: is never blue,
Because he's thinking of Mary Lou.

Dianne Dufour: who's a Bud Davies fan,
Sits in school right next to Barbara Ann.

Stella Fox: as everyone knows,
Is a cheerleader for good old St. Rose.

Carolyn Grenier: dark and small,
You always see her in the hall.

Jackie Grondin: who doesn't like to sing,
When it comes to P.T. she's got the swing.

Jessie Hutchinson: though kind of small,
Does O.K. with basketball.

Janet Kirkaldy: who uses big words,
When it comes to grammar knows her verbs.

Janet Ladouceur: who sits in the back,
For a personality she'll never lack.

Bonnie LaLonge: has a real nice name,
And because of Sir it's brought her fame.

John Mayville: who sits in class,
Doesn't like to work very fast.

Ronnie Meloche: who is not mean,
Is always flirting with Alma Jean.

Frank Pietrangelo: comes from Italy,
Talks Italian with Mr. Stefani.

Pat Pillon: they call her a hick,
But of the boys she'll take her pick.

Tony Reaume: is very small,
When he's with girls, he's on the ball.

Sister Patrick: "Give me a sentence with an object."

Pat: "My teacher is very nice."

Sister Patrick: "What is the object?"

Jerry (from back of room): "High marks!"

Jersey: "Got a cigarette?"

Coots: "I thought you quit smoking."

Jersel: "I'm in the first stage. I've quit buying."

Mother Mary

By MALVOLIO

Songs are sung in many words
Of Mary's many traits.
Some name her "Portal of the Sky"—
Think that the highest praise.

To others She is "Star Of Morn"—
A Guide, A Hope, A Light,
Intercessor to ward a blow,
A Friend in darkest night.

Some see Her throned and crowned
on high:
They see Her wreathed with flowers
They call Her "Queen Of Heaven" above
Near Godlike in Her powers.

To me, the thought that comforts most
Brings Mary down to earth.
I see Her move from Crib to Cross
With Her Son from death to birth.

Through all His life She lived in full
A mother's selfless role,
I see Her do the same for me:
Mary, Mother of my soul.

Grade IX-J Class Notes

Gerald Bondy, a blond haired lad,
The girls all think he isn't bad.
Paul Deslippe, always being seen
At Bill's is really keen.
Gordon Amlin, tall and strong,
never knows when he is wrong.
Ronnie Shaw, our talkative boy,
Always seems to be full of joy.
Dale Bondy is short and plucky,
He's got brains and boy, he's lucky.
Earl Renaud, the girls will agree,
That he's as nice as he can be.
Ervin Renaud, nicknamed Hector,
From Sister always gets a lecture.
Stanley Sapalski, tall and fair,
When we have parties he's never there.
Garfield Schafer with curly hair,
Walks about with quite a flair.
Francis Deslippe when not at school,
Down at Bill's shooting pool.
Lawrence Sunderland, tall and thin,
On the dance floor takes a spin.
Donald Robillard, nicknamed Caesar,
Certainly has lots of leisure.
Gail Robinson, pert and pretty,
To talk is always ready.
Dorothy Kost, sweet and shy,
In class is sure to get by.

Jean Deneau, a tiny lass,
Thinks of Gerald during class.
Pat Giroux, a funny clown,
Never seems to have a frown.
Edna Rocheleau, a pretty nice gal,
To everyone is a real swell pal.
Penny Scarlett with muscles and might,
Gordon Amlin she loves to fight.
Lenore Pilon when work is done,
Is full of pep and lots of fun.
Virginia Pilon, who is very thin,
Gabs all day with Gloria Finn.
Gloria Finn, a friend to all,
When doing her work is on the ball.
Mary-Anne Pilon, not very shy,
Sure gets along with a certain guy.
Judy Deslippe, our champ she is,
Runs those yards in a whiz.
Mary-Lou Bondy is very tricky,
Especially when she's with Mickey.
Ruth Amlin, a very smart lass,
Really gets her work done fast.
Linda Thrasher says she works hard,
Have you ever seen her report card?
Phylis Talbot throws her glances,
Over her shoulder to our Francis.

POEM

A DAY IN 12 J

"Behave yourselves,
Don't be a baby class.
You have to study,
If you want to pass."

"No homework done, Pat?
So up to the board,
You're spending too much time
In that old Ford."

"Chick, sit up
And put down your feet.
First thing you know
You'll be sound asleep."

"We haven't time
To be acting silly.
The road to success
Is rough and hilly."

"Ann and Marilyn,
Stop bothering June.
You'll have plenty of time
To gossip at noon."

"Ronny, Collier!
Be good boys.
Try to study
With a little less noise."

"Jim, please, attention.
You're disturbing the class.
How long is this discussion
Going to last?"

"Jerry, Bob,
Pat and Arlene,
Stop moving your desks
So you won't be seen."

"Sue and Fizzle,
Your Homework is alike.
You shouldn't have copied.
Stay in tonight."

"Listen, Wesley,
Put down your foot.
Stop your nonsense,
And look at your book."

"Gerald Deslippe,
Answer my question.
And take from your face
That silly expression."

"Freda, sit down,
And don't bother Lou.
Finish that Latin
I gave you to do."

"Betty and Joyce,
I know you're friends.
But keep your talk
Till the week-ends."

"Sally Beneteau,
Will you be quiet!
If you keep that up
You'll start a riot."

"Now, Nancy,
What's the Joke?
If you don't stop laughing,
You're liable to choke."

"Katherine Tiefenbach,
Just for fun,
I'm going to ask,
Is your homework done?"

"Barbara, pick your book
Up off the floor.
Before Pete goes
To answer the door."

The Senior Girls' Basketball

The Senior Girls coached by Miss Laura Brooker, ended the season in fifth place with a record of two wins and four losses. Their most disappointing losses were Kingsville, where they lost by one point and at Harrow, lost in the final minutes by four points. The girls showed excellent team work and school spirit all during the season.

The members of the team were: Forwards — Captain Jo-Anne Fitzmaurice, Sally Kelly, Mary Kitka, Mary Anne Parker, and Jane Taylor. Guards were Pat Spearing, Sally Beneteau, Joyce Trombley, Donna Pouget, Freda Christl and Maureen Helfrich.

St. Rose Senior Boys' Basketball 1956

The year of 1955 didn't finish as fruitful to the St. Rose Sr. Saints as 1954 but the team led by Captain Bob Fitzmaurice with an average of 13.3 and Gerald Deslippe with 10.3 along with Larry Gardener, Harold Shaw and Pete Simone fought hard to the end. The reserves were Jim Sutton, John Sunderland, Pat Pouget, Elso Pontini, Armand DeLuca and Bill Gibb.

The Junior Girls' Basketball

Although the Junior Girls chalked up only one victory, they showed excellent sportsmanship through every game. Especially fine teamwork was displayed throughout the season by the forwards. Captain, Pat Marshall, Gloria Finn, Penny Peters, Isabel Renaud, Mary Lou Ouellette, Nancy Dube and Linda Hamilton. Intercepting passes getting rebounds and slyly tagging balls were the guards: Jessie Hutchinson, Ann Bingham, Janet Ladouceur, Katherine Tiefenbach, Carolyn Burns and Lynda Thrasher.

The team would like to express their thanks to Miss Laura Brooker for the wonderful coaching.

The Junior Boys' Basketball

The St. Rose Jr. Boys had a very successful season finishing with four wins, two loss record placing them third in the division. This entitled them to meet Riverside in the semi-playoff in which they were defeated.

Team captain, Jerry Bornais who averaged 13.1 points a game along with Gene Reaume who averaged 11.1 points a game sparked the team as well as controlling the backboards. Larry Shaw, another outstanding player, averaged 7.4 points a game and was high scorer in any single game with 23 points. Dick Bondy had an average of 6.3 points a game and Ron Burns with an average of 6 points a game played great games both on offence and defence.

Francis Deslippe and Pierre Richard did a great job when Larry Shaw and Ron Burns were unable to play. Other members of the team are Vincent Spearing, Ron Bornais, Gordon Aulin and Robert Bingham. The team wishes to thank Paul Murray and Mr. J. Stefani who did an excellent job of coaching.

Last Will and Testament

GRADE XII

As we pass through these old familiar rooms for the last time, our hearts rise in our throats, and our last thought is to be remembered and loved. Therefore, we, the Class of '56" as a whole, undivided and overflowing with knowledge do hereby bequeath the following:

To Rev. Father Lowrey, a sincere "thank you" for his untiring efforts to make St. Rose both comfortable and attractive.

To Rev. Father Nolan, a heartfelt "thank you" for his enlightening Religion lessons.

To the Sisters of the Holy Names, our teachers, we leave many thanks and a remembrance in our prayers.

To the coaches, we leave a prayer that they have seen the last of the scoreless wonders.

To the Juniors, our Alma Mater.

To the freshmen, a few of our brilliant minds (preserved in alcohol).

To the school . . . well . . . we just leave it in one piece.

Individually we bequeath:

Jerry Bornais wills his front seat to certain people who have the weakness of talking and have to be watched by Sister John.

Pat Spearing leaves her ink well to all who write fan letters to the R.C.N.

Ann Bingham wills her pencils to all the butterfingers of '57.

Bob Fitz leaves his left arm to all future hookshooters of '57.

Katy Tiefenbach leaves her size 10's to Bev Shindler.

Nancy Dube leaves her rosy cheeks to all the palefaces of '57.

Marilyn Bondy leaves her book on "How to write a letter" to those who write about twice a day.

Lou Ann Sinasac leaves her knack of learning Foreign languages such as Italian and French, to those who like the 'Continental type'.

Jim Sutton leaves some unargued arguments to those who like to stall for time during Geometry, French, Latin, Religion, etc.

Arlene DeHetre leaves a few of her steadies to the wallflowers of '57.

Freda Christl leaves her parking spot to Bev Shindler (save the tree).

Ron Reaume leaves his spares to those who like a good game of cards about 2:30 in the afternoon.

Armand DeLuca leaves his seat in the back of the room to any guy who doesn't like 6 or 8 chatty girls around him.

Sally Beneteau leaves her future ponytail to anybody with a D.A.

Gerald Deslippe leaves 5 or 6 inches to the hopeless basketball stars.

John Fryer wills his jaws to those who chew gum from 9 till 4.

Betty Deneau leaves her car keys to the future chauffeur of St. Joseph's Academy.

Joyce Grondin wills her French name to all Irishmen.

Eddie Curtis bequeaths his cigarette butts to Harold Shaw.

Beverly Wigie wills her temper to the mad mathematicians of '57.

Theresa Simone leaves her quietness to all future rowdies.

Patsy Marshall wills her jive dictionary to Jane Taylor.

Pat Pillon wills her ability to handle the bell to next year's bellringer.

Margie Pouget leaves her intelligence to the "dumbbells" of '57.

Sheila Finn leaves her old S.W.A. tickets to all bus riders of '57.

John Sunderland bequeaths his height to all future short basketball players.

Bob Mayville leaves his secret code to all those who can't read the alphabet.

Marilyn Dube wills her "rock and roll" to next year's squares.

Shirley Ann Dufour bequeaths her wardrobe to Isabelle Renaud.

John Yankovich leaves his vocabulary to the illiterates of '57.

Harvey Beneteau leaves his French book to all French haters.

Mary Sauro wills her long hair to Amy Adams.

Rose Walach wills her sweet personality to next year's grouches.

Nancy Amlin bequeaths her ballet shoes to Elso Pontini.

Antoine Beaudoin wills his boredom to all future historians.

Mary Anne Parker leaves her "search for tomorrow" to all love-lorns of '57.

Sally Kelly wills her "Bermuda Shorts" to next year's style fans.

Wayne Hunt leaves his front seat to anyone who wants it.

Charlie McGee bequeaths all his spare time to the next Grade XII to waste.

Lawrence Cote wills his agricultural knowledge to the city slickers of '57.

Bill Gibb bequeaths his bug collection to all future Zoology enthusiasts.

Annette Beneteau leaves her gay disposition to all "sad sacks" of '57.

In the pattern of Canada's future the key piece is you!

In this fortunate country of ours we have all the materials needed to build a prosperous future—the power and the wealth, the abundant resources of mine and forest, of field and fishery. But in one resource we face a serious and growing shortage—in capable leaders, in men and women with the necessary skills and adequate training to share in the responsibilities and rewards of a rapidly growing nation. If you plan to grow with Canada, now is the time to take full advantage of the educational opportunities your country provides . . . so that you will be prepared to help meet the exciting, exacting demands of a nation marching forward to new greatness. In the pattern of Canada's future, the key piece is you!
